EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

2. Claim 14 is rewritten as:

- - The display substrate of claim 12, wherein the moisture proof film and the transparent conductive film are ~~[[is]]~~ formed by applying a high frequency voltage between opposed electrodes under atmospheric pressure or under approximately atmospheric pressure for a discharge, generating a reactive gas in the plasma state by the discharge, exposing the transparent film to the reactive gas in the plasma state whereby the moisture proof film and the transparent conductive film are formed on the transparent film. - - .

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance. The closest cited prior art of record fail to fairly teach or suggest the display substrate comprising the specific combination of: a moisture proof film containing a metal oxide or metal nitride formed on at least one of the surfaces of a transparent film, and a transparent conductive film formed on the moisture proof film, or on the surface opposite to the surface of the transparent film where the moisture proof film is formed, the transparent film containing:

1) a cellulose ester and a crosslinked vinyl polymer obtained by polymerization of a low molecular compound having a molecular weight of 1,000 or less and having a polymerizable unsaturated double bond, or

2) a cellulose ester crosslinked by a compound containing a plurality of reactive groups, the reactive group being an epoxy group or an acid hydride group, and a plasticizer in an amount of less than 1 percent, wherein the transparent film is drawn 3 though 100 percent both in a conveyance direction and a lateral direction.

See Applicant's remarks dated 5/24/10 combined with Applicant's affidavit dated 4/16/10.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
